

Know Your Teacher

Our long-standing Teacher's Assistant Julie Elston

If you were ruler of your own country what would be the first law you would introduce? A 9-day fortnight as I believe it would improve staff morale and work productivity.

Who was your favourite teacher at school and why? My French language teacher because she was kind, smart and classy.

If you had to describe yourself as an animal, which one would it be? A magnificent Waler horse, proud and brave as depicted in The Man from Snowy River poem by Banjo Patterson.

If you could share a meal with any 4 individuals, living or dead, who would they be? Nadia Comaneci from Romania, the first female gymnast to score perfect 10s in the 1976 Olympic Games. Tommy Woodcock the strapper of famous Australian racehorse Phar Lap who lifted our nations spirit during the depression. Burke and Wills the explorers who forged the track over the Blue Mountains to see what was beyond. Princess Mary of Denmark to say how amazing it is to have an Australian Princess.

If you could travel to any year in a time machine, what year would you choose and why? Time machine - to 01.01.1901 year of Federation - Australia proclaimed a Commonwealth in Centennial Park.

If you could change one thing about yourself, what would it be? My freckle skin so I wouldn't suffer sunburn so much.

What is one thing money can't buy that you are grateful for? The values and resilience my parents taught me together with how to love life - e.g. smell the roses and glass half full outlook.

What would you sing at Karaoke night? April Sun in Cuba by Dragon.

If you could only eat one meal for the rest of your life, what would it be? Tacos - hard and soft.

If you could go back in time to change one thing, what would it be? Saving the Titanic.

What three items would you take with you on a deserted island? Dora the Explorer's backpack (it literally has everything!), unlimited water and a Swiss Army knife.

What was your favourite subject in school? Ancient History because I was fascinated with how life was lived back then.