PART C: AUDITION

Alongside this application, applicants are required to attend a dance audition held at The Lakes College.

Expectations of applicants within the audition include:

- (a) Demonstrate physical fitness to the level required of the program
- (b) Learn and perform a movement sequence in a genre selected by the choreographer. Panel members will be looking at a candidate's ability to execute the choreography with expert technical and expressive skills.

In addition to the performance assessment, candidates are to prepare the following:

- (a) A 60 second solo in a genre of choice which showcases the applicant's skill level and ability

Upon receipt of this application, successful applicants will be advised of the audition date and time via email. Submission of a completed application does not guarantee an audition.
